

OPSEU Video Competition Call for submissions!

Create a video about Public Services and you could win $1000!

Public services: Good communities, good jobs, a valuable investment

Do you believe in the value of public services?
What's your story?

Do you have a rant waiting to be let loose?
This is your chance to make a difference.

Show us what you've got!

Submission Details:

- Videos must be between one and five minutes long.
- Videos must be uploaded to the OPSEU Video Competition YouTube group at www.youtube.com/group/OPSEUvideo2010 to qualify.
- Submission deadline is April 21st, 2010.
- All Ontario residents are invited to participate
- All submissions will be eligible for one of seven regional prizes of $1000.
- The competition winner will be chosen from the seven regional finalists to receive a further $1000.
- The seven winning videos will be shown at OPSEU Convention 2010, and included on the OPSEU website.
- The overall competition winner will be announced at OPSEU Convention 2010.

For full contest details, and to complete the competition registration form, visit the OPSEU website at www.opseu.org/video2010.

It's time to recognize that taxes pay for our public services and acknowledge the talents of Ontario residents... We all benefit.

