

Nov. 20
wear
a blue ribbon

Why?

Because on Nov. 20, 1989, the United Nations adopted the Convention on the Rights of the Child.

In ratifying that decision, Canada promised children the right to be free of harm and to live and grow to their full potential.

We're not keeping that promise. Children and youth are at risk because Ontario refuses to properly fund the children's aid and mental health services they depend on.

On Nov. 20, National Child Day, wear a blue ribbon.

Tell Dalton McGuinty:
"Fix the funding crisis
so vulnerable kids will be safe and get the help
they need before it's too late."

www.premier.gov.on.ca

A message from front-line staff,
members of OPSEU and CUPE

