Dear sisters/brothers:

As we told you earlier this year, the Community Services Divisional Council has launched a campaign to end workplace violence. The campaign involves members in developmental services, children's aid societies, BPS corrections, community agencies, child and family services, child care, and child treatment centres.

We're organizing workshops, one per OPSEU region, to talk about how we can use our rights under the Occupational Health and Safety Act (OHSA) to mobilize collectively in our workplaces to challenge workplace violence.

The workshop will have the following elements:

- Sharing our experience of violence and reflecting on the risk factors, hazards and systemic issues that contribute to it;
- Presenting the findings of recent studies, including the telephone survey done by OPSEU;
- Learning how to use our rights to know and participate under OHSA to enforce a safe workplace;
- Practising writing effective recommendations as Joint Health and Safety Committees and worker health and safety representatives; and

- Developing collective strategies in the workplace to get action from employers and the provincial government on workplace violence.

A maximum of two members can come from each Community Services bargaining unit in Region 6.
We suggest one is an LEC member and one is from the JHSC or is a worker health and safety representative.

Please fill out the enclosed Attendance and Advance form. Please fax it to us ASAP but no later than Friday, May 9 to (416) 443-1762 so we can give your employers the proper weeks' notice of time off that many of them require.

If you have any questions, please contact Jackie Evans at (416) 443-8888 ext. 8675

Thank you in advance for participating in the workshop as we mobilize to get employers and the provincial government to act against workplace violence.

In solidarity,

Deborah Gordon
