

EMERGENCY MEETING ALERT

The McGuinty government is planning to rush through legislation by early March, to implement what they're calling Local Health Integration Networks (LHINs.)

If passed this means service amalgamation and opening the door to competitive bidding for health services.

Amalgamation means job loss and erosion of patient care:

Fewer RNs, fewer MRI technologists, fewer pharmacy technicians, fewer RPNs, fewer cleaning staff, fewer

Competitive bidding means reduced wages, fewer benefits and no job security.

Find out what you can do now to protect your job and our patients.

CUPE, ONA, OPSEU and SEIU, representing 200,000 healthcare workers, are holding a joint meeting to give you the information you need to know.

Don't wait until it's too late - attend the meeting.

Tues. Jan. 17 - 7 p.m.
Hilton Hotel, 300 King Street, London

Jobs are on the line.
