

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL PRESENTS

Free Trade and Human Rights in Colombia

Is Canada making things worse?

Come hear two courageous leaders of Colombian social movements, Maria Del Carmen Sanchez Burgos (President of Anthoc, the national health workers' union) and Yolanda Becerra (National Director of the Popular Women's Organization) speak about the widespread human rights abuses in Colombia and the impact that the trade and investment generated by the Canada-Colombia Free Trade Agreement will have on the rights and livelihoods of Colombian communities

A map of Colombia displayed in Plaza Bolívar is covered with the pictures of those missing or killed in the conflict. AP/PA Photo/William Fernando Martínez

WHEN: 7.30pm, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 17TH

WHERE: SKYDRAGON COMMUNITY CENTRE
27 KING WILLIAM ST, HAMILTON

COST: FREE

THIS EVENT IS SPONSORED BY AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL GROUPS 1 (Hamilton), 8 (McMaster) and 21 (Burlington) AND Skydragon Community Centre. The tour of Yolanda Becerra and Maria del Carmen Sanchez Burgos is organized by KAIROS, CERLAC-York University, the United Church of Canada, the Americas Policy Group of the Canadian Council for International Cooperation (CCIC), and Amnesty International Canada (English Speaking Branch).

For more information, contact Amnesty International Group 1 at: sorger@mcmaster.ca