

Court Reporters Day of Action, December 16

Defend the integrity of the record

Show your concern for the integrity of the record by wearing a black ribbon or armband tomorrow.

Your Ad Hoc Court Reporters Committee has asked for all courthouses to send a strong message tomorrow to Attorney General Chris Bentley: His plans for court reporters will result in lower standards for transcript production, ultimately placing the integrity of the record at risk.

Talk to your union steward about how your courthouse will observe the Day of Action. You can also contact OPS lead mobilizer for court reporters, Helen Haggith, cell: 519-999-2243, hhaggith@cogeco.ca.

Your Ad-Hoc Court Reporters Committee has been diligently working on your behalf and would like to thank you for participating in the court reporter meetings across the province. Your ideas have been very instrumental in shaping the campaign to demonstrate the integrity of your work.

To date, hundreds of letters have been sent to communities of interest and we know the word is getting out. A copy of the letter is available at www.opseucourtreporters.org. If you haven't had an opportunity to send your letters, please do so.

Make your voice heard tomorrow. Each court is asked to participate in some way to show your concern for the Ministry's new model for court reporting in the province.
